Bernard has done a greater deal of writing on Don't Touch Me There, her sophomore album, and has improved in nearly every way over her first album, Girl Next Door. It is nearly impossible not to take to Bernard 's gentle but assured voice, though up until now she hasn't had such strong material to work with.

'Don't Touch Me There' (1999) est nettement moins "true country oriented" que son prédécesseur, 'The Girl Next Door' (1996), mais il est sacrément 'country glamour' dans un modèle qui, de Lorrie MORGAN à Deana CARTER, n'a rien à voir avec la country-pop shaniatwainis ée qui faisait florès à l'époque.

Raye - Please Don't Touch (Lyric Video) - YouTube

I don't like having them touched, by anyone. Not my partner, not me, not health professionals the very few times I've had to be examined 'down there'. The sensation is unpleasant, almost painful, even at the lightest touch, and it means that I have to have a long conversation with every new partner about 'please don't touch me there'.
